International not-for-profit Association

Registered Office: Avenue de Tervuren 36/18
1040 Brussels
Belgium

TITLE I. Name, Registered Office and General Objectives

Article 1. NAME AND REGISTERED OFFICE

1.1. The Society is registered as a not-for-profit ‘International Association’ following the Belgian law of 27 June 1921 on not-for-profit associations, not-for-profit foundations and international associations. The name of the Society in English is the “International Society for Horticultural Science”, hereafter referred to as “the Society” or “ISHS”, or in French “Société Internationale de la Science Horticole”. The official languages of the Society are English and French. In case of dispute, the French version of the Statutes is considered definitive.

1.2. The Society is established for an indefinite period of time.

1.3. The registered office of the Society is in 1040 Brussels, Avenue de Tervuren 36/18, Belgium. The registered seat can be changed to wherever in the Brussels-Capital (Belgium) Region by simple decision of the Council, to be published within a period of one month, in the annexes of the Moniteur Belge.

Article 2. OBJECTIVE

2.1. The objective of the Society is: to further all sectors of horticulture by improving international cooperation in the scientific study, education and exchange of knowledge of biological, technical, ecological, environmental, sociological and economic issues as they affect horticulture.

Article 3. ACTIVITIES

The Society will:

3.1. hold International Congresses at regular intervals

3.2. arrange international workshops and symposia as well as other international meetings

3.3. establish Divisions according to commodities within horticulture, and according to subjects of horticultural science and technology, that range across several commodity sectors. In addition the concept of ‘Commission’ will be used for ‘special ad-hoc commissions only’.

3.4. form relationships, and cooperate, with other governmental and non-governmental organizations in its field of interest

3.5. edit, produce and distribute information, reports and scientific or technical publications, reserving the exclusive rights and copyrights to the Society according to Belgian law

3.6. use other legal means to achieve the objectives of the Society.

TITLE II. Membership

Article 4. MEMBERS

4.1. Membership of the Society is open to individuals, institutions/organizations and countries/regions, subscribing to the objectives of the Society.
Institutions/organizations must be legally registered in accordance with the laws and customs of their country/region of origin.

4.2. The Society recognizes the following main categories of members:

4.2.1. Individual members
4.2.2. Country/Region members: countries, and geographical regions recognized by the Council, represented by ministries, national or regional societies, or national or regional associations or institutes
4.2.3. Institutional members: any other organization with an interest in horticultural science and technology
4.2.4. Honorary members: individuals who, in the judgment of the Council, have made an exceptional contribution to the Society. They are appointed for life by the General Assembly.

4.3. Membership is available upon application to the Board and payment of the annual dues. Honorary members are exempt from payment of annual dues.

4.4. The Secretariat maintains a register of all members listed by country/region.

4.5. The Board has the right to reject an application for membership and to terminate membership.

4.6. Membership ends in the event of:

4.6.1. resignation
4.6.2. death of the individual or dissolution of the organization (as defined in 4.2.3.)
4.6.3. termination of Society membership by a decision of the Board for non-compliance with the Statutes or Rules of Procedure.

4.7. The creditors or heirs of an Individual member have, without exception, no claim on the goods or assets of the Society; nor can they have any vote in the affairs of the Society.

4.8. If an Individual member resigns from the Society, he/she cannot claim any of the goods or assets of the Society, nor claim repayment of any dues previously paid.

Article 5. MEMBERSHIP RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

5. Members have the right to participate at the General Assembly. They will receive the newsletter of the Society and have the right to question the members of the Board. The members have an obligation to pay the membership dues and comply with the Statutes and Rules of the Society. The dues to be paid cannot be higher than the amount agreed by the Council at its last meeting. The Secretariat will communicate the amount of the membership dues to be paid at the request of a member or applicant for membership.

TITLE III. The Structure of the Society

Article 6. ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE
The Society has the following organizational structure:

6.1. General Assembly, comprising all members
6.2. Council
6.3. Board
6.4. Executive Committee
6.5. Divisions and Working Groups
6.6. Secretariat.

Article 7. GENERAL ASSEMBLY

7.1. The General Assembly has all the powers not assigned to the Council and the Board in accordance with the Society’s Statutes and the law.

7.2. The General Assembly confirms the election of the President and Members of the Board (see art. 8.4).

7.3. At every meeting of the General Assembly, the Board is required to render a report, including a financial statement, and to present its forward plans covering the period until the next meeting of the General Assembly. The General Assembly ratifies the annual reports provisionally approved by the Council conform Article 8.5.1.
7.4. The quorum for the meeting of the General Assembly is not less than 75 members of the Society. Voting is by simple majority except in the case of dissolution of the Society.

7.5. The General Assembly meets once every four years on the occasion of the Congress mentioned under article 13. The General Assembly is invited at least by means of an announcement published in the Society’s official publication “Chronica Horticulturae”. This invitation is signed on behalf of the Board by the Secretary of the Board or by the President of the Society. The date and place of the General Assembly are stated in the announcement. An agenda will be issued to the membership no less than four months before the date of the meeting.

7.6. The General Assembly considers and confers Honorary Membership as recommended by the Council.

7.7. The resolutions of the General Assembly are published in summary in the official publication of the Society, “Chronica Horticulturae”.

Article 8. COUNCIL

8.1. The Council consists of representatives of the Country/Region members, representatives of the Individual members residents of non-member countries, and representatives of Individual members residents of non-member geographical regions recognized by the Council. Each Country/Region member can appoint up to a maximum of three Council members but each Country/Region member has only one vote in the Council. Individual members who are residents of non-member countries or other non-member geographical regions recognized by the Council can elect, per country/region and from their ranks, by simple majority, a single representative. This representative has one vote on the Council. The Council consists of at least twenty-five voting members. Council members are in office for a term of two years, which is renewable.

8.2. Council members of the Society are appointed according to the procedures of the country/region concerned.

8.3. The Council has the powers assigned to it by the General Assembly.

8.4. The President of the Society is elected by the Council and chairs its meetings. In the President's absence, the Vice-President of the Board takes the chair. If both the President and the Vice-President of the Board are absent, the Council elects a chairperson for that meeting.

8.5. The Council normally meets once every two years, having been invited formally to:

8.5.1. approve provisionally the annual accounts, and will submit these for ratification to the next General Assembly
8.5.2. receive the reports of the Board and Executive Committee
8.5.3. receive and approve the forward plans including the financial budget
8.5.4. fill any vacancies within the Board for the period until the next General Assembly
8.5.5. transact any other business.

8.6. Upon a request from 10 voting Country/Region members, the Board can invite the Council to call a special meeting. The Council is invited by regular mail, addressed to each of its members at least two months before the meeting. This invitation is signed on behalf of the Board by the Secretary of the Board. An agenda will be included with the invitation.

8.6.1. The quorum for a Council meeting is reached:
- if one third of the Country/Region representatives, entitled to vote, are present or represented;
- and if at least one representative of each of the geographical regions (i) Africa, (ii) Oceania, (iii) North America (including Caribbean and Central America), (iv) South America, (v) Asia, and (vi) Europe is present or represented.

8.7. Decision making may be by a show of hands. When voting is required votes are cast orally unless a voting representative or the Board demands a ballot. Votes relating to persons are taken by ballot. The Chairperson only votes in the case of a tie. Any one Country/Region member on Council can hold only one proxy vote.

8.8. At each meeting, minutes are taken, adopted by the Council at its next meeting, and then signed by the President, the Secretary of the Board and two other Council members, as a true and accurate record.

Article 9. BOARD

9.1. The Board consists of not less than five, nor more than nine, members who are elected by the Council and confirmed by the General Assembly. In addition, the Executive Director and the Congress President are ex officio, non-voting members.

9.1.1. The Council is empowered by the General Assembly to appoint, discharge or suspend from duties any Board member in the period between General Assemblies.
